

When the music of Patrizio Buanne came into my life this changed my life and hopelessness had turned into hope

The music from world star Patrizio Buanne saved my life and helped me find new hope on one of my most hopeless days. When I wanted to give up the fight against cancer in 2012, his music saved my life because when I heard him sing on TV, my life changed, all hopelessness had turned into new hope. From then on I was brave enough again to fight against the cancer again and months later I had won. Since then his music accompanied me and his music became my best friend and today 2019 so many years later only one thing has changed and that is that my love for his music has become even greater than ever before and my respect, loyalty and gratitude for Patrizio Buanne has grown boundlessly.

My life in recent years has certainly been anything but simple, marked by strokes of fate and health setbacks, people who were very important to me have died and on many days I walked through a valley of tears. But since 2012 I was never alone anymore, because the music from world star Patrizio Buanne accompanied my life and was again and again like a bright sunshine in the darkest night.

With the greatest possible respect and the greatest possible loyalty to my great hero and my greatest role model and also with boundless gratitude deep in my heart for the most beautiful music in the world which gave me on one of my most hopeless days new hope and courage and wick also has saved my life and now I try to write on a piece of paper what I feel, and try to pay my respects to one of the most unique entertainers and singers of all times . i also want to say again why his music means so much to me , and also why I love his music with all my heart.

Here I am now sitting, once again facing an important turning point in my life and allowed to live my dreams again and in that moment, I am more aware than ever how much I owe the music from world star Patrizio Buanne.

I owe my life to his music, because only through her have I found again and again new courage and new strength since 2012, despite all the health setbacks not to give up, she was my constant anchor and became my best friend. The most special moment of my life was , when in 2012, through the music of Patrizio Buanne, I found new hope and courage in the fight against cancer.

Since then, his music has always been like the most beautiful sunshine in my life. I am so thankful to have this timeless, beautiful and fantastic music in my life. Many things changed in my life many times, friends came and went, but I could always limitless rely on his music and that she would help me again and again to dry my tears, to be happy again and to find new hope always again .

Of course, this unique, great and phenomenal music can only exist because there is a singer who has never given up creating timeless music, and this singer is world star Patrizio Buanne. My respect and loyalty to him has grown infinitely from year to year, and I can not explain in words how great and appreciative that respect is that I feel. Not even all the stars in the sky would be enough to sufficiently describe my gratitude for his timeless and unique music.

Certainly, the music from Patrizio is one of the greatest miracles of my life and every new morning that I can wake up and realize that I am still alive, than is my heart is always filled with the greatest gratitude . And every new morning i know that this new day will begin again positively, because as soon as one of his songs sounds , then i can start happily into the new day . It is No matter if it rains, storms or snows because when I listen to his music the sunshine shines in my heart. Since 2012, his music has given me the most wonderful moments of my life , and his music has become an ever more valuable and consistent part of my life from year to year. The music from Patrizio Buanne is something very special, it is incomparable and unique and there will never be anyone who can sing these songs as Patrizio Buanne does. Because he has created something that will never be able to copie, and that is his his personal own music style , his own Patrizio musicstyle. His music has been, is and always will be my light of hope, through it I will never stop believing in myself and my dreams and never will losing the hope, the courage and the strength to continue on my way.

That I can start again in 2019 after all the many health setbacks of the past few years with my music and at the same time with my book and hope projects more and more people courage and hope can give , and that I did not give up fighting against the cancer and that i am still alive , all that and much more i owe to his music. The music of Patrizio Buanne was since 2012 my hope on hopeless days, she gave me courage and strength not to give up and go my way and helped me again and again to never give up the belief in myself and my dreams.
